Part One

Here is a conversation between two friends about looking for work. Write each verb in brackets in the correct tense.

The last job I had (have) was in a bakery.

I've applied for three jobs but I (1 not had) an interview yet.

Don't worry, something will turn up. What kind of work (2 you apply) for so far?

Like you, I (3 hope) to get something in catering.

Well, I (4 interview) last week by the manager of the Clifton Hotel. He (5 look) for restaurant staff.

Do you think you will get the job?

I doubt it! I tripped and (6 fall) flat on my face! If only I (7 tie) my shoelaces!

Part One (continued)

How embarrassing. If I were you I
(⁸ wear) different shoes next time.

I couldn't agree more. They are advertising for bar staff at the Grand Hotel.
..... (⁹ we go) there together?

Yes, I (¹⁰ like) that. We can give each other moral support, can't we?

Yes, and you can check my shoelaces for me!

Part Three

Here are some extracts of a conversation between Steve and his friend, Bob. Write a suitable response in each space.

Hi Bob. I like your jacket!

16

I thought I hadn't seen you wearing it before. Would you believe it! My doctor's recommended I take up golf!

17

No, seriously. He thinks it would do me good because I've not been feeling very well recently.

18

What you need is a holiday. A few days relaxing by a pool – somewhere hot and sunny.

19

A guy at work has a villa in Majorca that he says I can use. Shall I give him a ring?

20

I'll ring him now. Can I borrow your phone?

21

Oh no! I've dropped it! What an idiot!

Part Three (continued)

22

Thank goodness! Oh no, I don't have his number with me.

23 You can call him later, ²³

Yes, I'll do that. Meanwhile, I'll get us a drink from the bar. What do you fancy?

24

Me too. So that's two cokes and I'm paying.

25

You're welcome.
